Dev-I-Ant is a dark ambient project focusing on the eerie sounds of horror and deep drones. the ep 'shadows tell truth' is the 2nd part of the album 'a place of warmth and tears'. The whispers could be lost souls roaring in the wind or bellowing shrieks of deadly killings. The secrets seep out of the heat of the sun's rays, travel in the wind breeze or lie in the brooding night landscape. hold hands and take a journey into loneliness and despair. we have all been there, we just put the soundtrack together to your terror.
